WHAT are necessary qualifications for a politician?

OUR democratic exchanges of southeast Missouri are advocating primary election of nominees.

It is a case of you get out and let us in, and not so much love of party that some people advocate different men in office. Hope this will not apply to Cape county.

It is so strange how some newspapers declare their intention to support those men who are for the good of the country, and then to note how angry they get if their man is not nominated.

At the primary conventions over the county is the place for the people to express themselves for county officers, and this year the primary conventions on the republican side of the house will be well attended.

This year there should be a vigorous campaign made in this state by the republicans. There are to be elected three supreme judges, two railroad commissioners, two United States senators and besides the regular state officers.

As a result of a saloon conference at Cape Girardeau there will be no more 5-cent whiskies. Can not the editors of that city have a conference and do something that they may have no more cheap job printing or 50-cent yearly subscriptions?

We learn from the Cape papers that there are about forty republican candidates for office this year. Cape Girardeau is surely going to fill all the county offices this year. Well, we should guess that as the Cape has two republican dailies now she should wield a wonderful influence. The Cape is a good city and we feel greatly interested in her progress but hardly think she should run the whole county.

BRIGHT'S DISEASE.

The largest sum ever paid for a prescription changed hands in San Francisco, August 30, 1901. The transfer involved in coin and stock $112,500 and was paid by a party of business men for specific Bright's disease and diabetes, hitherto incurable diseases.

They commenced the serious investigation of the specific November 15, 1900. They interviewed scores of the cured and tried it out on its merits by putting over three dozen cases on the treatment and watching them. They also got physicians to name chronic, incurable cases, and administered it with the physicians for judges. Up to August 25 eighty-seven per cent of the test cases were either well or progressing favorably.

There being but thirteen per cent of failures, the parties were satisfied and closed the transaction. The proceedings of the investigating committee and the clinical reports of the test cases were published and will be mailed free on application. Address John J. Fulton Company, 420 Montgomery St., San Francisco, Cal.

The Farmers' Institute.

The farmers' institute, which met in the court house here Monday and Tuesday, was well attended. Farmers from all parts of the county were in attendance.

The displays, though not so many, perhaps, as in former years, were good and in many respects excelled those of any former exhibit. The displays made and the interest manifested by our farmers and towns-people, show that the farmers' institute is highly appreciated in this county. Lectures on the horse, cattle, orchard, garden and other kindred subjects were delivered by members of the institute, and were listened to with interest.

Among the speakers were State Veterinarian Luckey, C. H. Eckles, T. I. Mair and W. T. Carrington. These lecturers talked on practical subjects, and gave many suggestions which if followed would certainly be of great value to the farmers.

On Monday night a musical and literary program was given by the citizens of Jackson, presided over by Hon. J. J. Sawyer, president of the institute. The vocal trio by Mrs. Helmkamp, Mrs. McNeely and Miss Hermine Keihne, the recitations by Eloise Latham and Don Norman, and the solos by Mrs. McNeely and Mrs. Helmkamp were all good and appreciated by the audience. In all the musical selections Miss Winnie Jones presided at the organ and did it creditably. Mr. J. W. Limbaugh delivered an appropriate address of welcome in which he assured our institute friends that we were glad to have them meet in our town. C. H. Eckles, a representative of the institute, properly responded. W. T. Carrington, state superintendent of public schools, made a very interesting talk on the work of our public schools on the agriculture line. He emphasized the fact that of our boys and girls learning something in our public schools that would serve them as citizens and especially as farmer citizens. He thought that the schools could do more of that on the nature study line and the study of literature which is suited for the child mind. Last but not least the Jackson orchestra favored the audience with two of their most excellent selections. These were well received by the audience. The evening exercises were attended by a crowded house, and good order prevailed.

Looking Backward

NOW that we have moved into our new Store, we look with pride (but with no thought of boasting) on what we have achieved in the time we have been in Jackson. By fair dealing, buying the best of goods, and selling them at as low prices as consistent with a living profit, we have steadily grown, until today we have the largest stock of Jewelry, Watches, etc., in Southeast Missouri, we have made steady growth and are compelled to use the nice large store-room next to the Exchange Bank.

Looking Forward

with the experience of the past to guide us, we mean to push forward; and with better facilities for the handling of business, with the best goods that can be bought, we will be in a better position than ever to serve our customers. Our aim shall be in the future, as it has been in the past, to merit the confidence and patronage of the people of Cape Girardeau and adjoining counties, by square dealing and proper service.

Thanking you for past favors and trusting to receive your support in the future, we remain, Yours for business,
